

Alignment with activities eligible for CSR spend

Activities	Alignment
Plantation and environment awareness programs	For the majority of the plantation in the rural areas. Green India Trust is providing a plants distribution and plantation in the rural areas. By conducting seminars and training program in school and college level for environment protections.
Education	Green India trust is provided free computer training in the local schools and personality development programs in colleges. And also Conducting yoga programs and health awareness camps.
Empowering women and promoting gender equality	The organization gives employment opportunities in the nurseries and also provided the skill development program in rural areas.
Improvement of health	Even the poorest among us deserve the dignity of equal human rights which cannot be declined. Green India trust is conducting free medical camp.

Alignment with Clause 135, Companies Act 2013

Companies Act 2013 States	Alignment
The Companies Act	The Green India Trust is a registered not-for-profit under the Indian Trusts Act, 1882 (Reg. No. 154). It is also registered under Section 12A (a) of the Income Tax Act, 1962 and Section 9 (1) (c) of the Foreign Contribution (regulation) Act, 2011 It is running one of the world's largest NGO - managed environment protection programmes, reaching out to one billion plantations in India nearest coast areas. The Ministry of Finance has bestowed 50% tax exemption for all donations made to Green India Trust under section 35AC with an upper limit of INR 400 Crores
The Companies Act The Companies Act, 2013 encourages companies to target their CSR interventions in their local region/area around where	Three districts and two states it operates.

The Companies Act states that CSR funding should not be considered as a one-time philanthropy but rather focus on activities which have large scale impact and are effectively managed.	Green India trust reaches out to around billion tree plantation and this itself is a testimony of large scale reach and sustained impact.
The act defines CSR as activities that promote poverty reduction, eradication of hunger, education, health, environmental sustainability, gender equality, and vocational skills development.	With hunger and education being the two crucial challenges being addressed, Green India Trust work falls in the defined activities of Companies Act 2013.